Proludic supports the wellbeing of Australians by creating award-winning, inspiring play equipment and playspaces.

Established in 1988, we design and build...

 inclusive play and fitness spaces that can be enjoyed by everyone nature-inspired playspaces that engage children of all ages and abilities in fun and active play themed playspaces that encourage imagination and creativity

 multigenerational fitness areas that get every “body” moving

Playspaces become a focal point for thriving communities to meet, relax, get fit and enjoy each other’s company.

They help build strong, active communities.

Proludic’s unique and expertly designed play equipment will help your project stand out.

WHY CHOOSE PROLUDIC?

We're playspace specialists — it's all we do!

Proludic's designs are based on sound principles and deep knowledge of what children – and their carers – enjoy and need.

In-house expertise & knowledge

Together with Proludic's landscape architects and construction experts, our play and project consultants bring local knowledge and years of experience in providing community recreation facilities.

We design, construct & install your playspace

As a playspace specialist, we offer a complete service. Our experienced team of professionals is on-hand from the initial design concepts, through to the installation and aftercare services.

Endless play solutions that spark the imagination

With an extensive catalogue of over 1200 products, and the ability to custom design and manufacture bespoke equipment that people of all ages can enjoy, you can be sure we'll meet your project's vision.

A collaborative process involving all stakeholders

We work alongside you and all project stakeholders to design and build practical and bespoke playspace solutions for your unique project.

Innovative, sustainable & durable designs

Innovation is in our DNA. The creativity of our designers and our quality manufacturing ensure original, durable and sustainable solutions.

An unrelenting focus on safety & compliance

Our design, manufacture and install teams ensure all our playspaces comply with Australian Standards for safety. With generous manufacturing warranties and easy availability of spare parts, we have you covered.

Outstanding service. Lasting value.

Our culture of service excellence puts clients at the heart of our business. This means high-quality, on-time service delivery on every project. Play equipment that our clients – and communities – will love.
